

MAKER JOURNAL

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit: Electromagnetism

Lesson 1: Magnetism in Our World

Use trusted websites to find information on your assigned topic. Remember, websites having .edu or .org are often contain more accurate and reliable information than websites ending in .com. Those ones tend to be focused on specific products to be sold to a consumer and therefore the information can be biased.

Electromagnetism Research Topic:
Important facts	Source (where you found the info)
Record the facts on your topic you find that are interesting to you and/or your group. Fact 1: Fact 2: Etc.

MAKER JOURNAL

Name: _____

Date: _____

Plan your presentation using the space below, making sure to include the main elements indicated.

Presentation Plan

Presentation Title:

How will your group present this information on the topic? With pictures and/or videos?

Introduction (What is the presentation going to be about? Who will present each part?):

Body (Discuss facts found by conducting research, examples of them, and how this has changed your thinking on the topic):

Conclusion (Briefly summarize the main points of the presentation, discuss the areas of your topic that you would like to research further, have audience think about how the presented information might relate to their own lives):